THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 18. 1742.

Journal of the Austrian Army.

On the 18th of October we quitted our Camp at Waidhausen and march'd to Pullenreid; in which, tho' it be a very bad Village, we fix'd our Head-Quarters. The Hussars which formed our Vanguard as they had done for several Days before, continued to send us in from time to time abundance of French Prisoners.

On the 19th we arrived at Wincklam, where the Duke of Lorraine had his Quarters, in the Castle belonging to the Baron of Francken. We made several small detachments of Hussars, in order to secure the Arrival of Convoys, and to compel the Payment of Contributions.

We halted on the 30th. The Baron de Trenck order'd some Houses, Barns, and Magazines of Wood, belonging to the little Town of Neuburg, to be set on Fire, because the Place had refused to pay the Contribution he demanded. This Day 50 Prisoners were sent to the Army, and several Officers and Deputies arrived from the adjacent Villages, in order to regulate the Contributions.

On the 31st the Army march'd to Retz, upon Advice we had that the French Army had pass'd the Naab Naabourg. His Royal Highness has dispatch'd a Messenger to Badweife, to hasten the March of the Pontons. The young Count de St. Ignon arrived this Day from Leutmaritz, and brought with him a French Courier, who had been taken by his Uncle the Field-Marshal St. Ignon, and who was charged with Letters of very great Importance.

Wasserbourg, Nov. 3. The Lieutenant Colonel Count Ferrari finding himself surrounded in the Castle of Katzenbourg by a considerable Body of Austrian Hussars, sent immediately to demand Succours from Veldt Marshal Seckendorff. The next Day his Excellency detached 500 Horse and 300 Grenadiers under the Command of the Prince of Hildberghausen, in order to disengage him. The Enemy without doubt had Intelligence of this March, but however they did not quit their Post till after a pretty brisk Action, in which they had many killed and wounded, besides 14 made Prisoners. Count Ferrari being thus deliver'd, the Prince of Hildberghausen march'd to Altheim, of which he took possession, and where he will continue. On the 2d, Count Minucci Master of the Ordnance, was detach'd from the Camp at Brannau, with a Body of 4000 Men of the best Troops in the Army. Whither he is march'd or with what View we know not, this only we know, that before he march'd, Orders were sent to the Prince of Hildberghausen to continue his March. We have receiv'd a very fine Train of Artillery from Ingoldstadt, and as we only waited for this in order to besiege some Place of Importance, so now we have receiv'd it, it is impossible we should remain any longer in this inactive State. It is supposed, that the first Attempt we make will be to force the Enemy to quit the Inn, on which they still have some Posts.

Paris, Nov. 19. We begin now to enter into the Design of marching our Army from Bohemia into Bavaria, which was at first a Thing that our first-rate Politicians could not agree about. Marshal Maillebois saw that it was simply impossible to relieve the Garrison of Prague in the Manner he had been directed, and therefore he was willing to try whether by so sudden and unexpected a March, he might not draw the Grand Duke and the Austrian Army to follow him in as great Hurry; and thereby give the Garrison of Prague an Opportunity of getting to Egra at least, from which they might have been easily brought off. If this Scheme should not prove successful, as to be able to penetrate into Austria, where one lucky Blow would procure a good Capitulation for Prague, and afford us an Opportunity of extricating our Troops from all their present Distresses. On the 12th in the Morning the King declared at his Levee, that M. Broglie would that very Day take upon him the Command of the Army in Bavaria, which every Body seem'd to hear with Satisfaction. His Majesty has been pleas'd to recall the Princes from Flanders, because he understood that their travelling with so great a Train contributed not a little to raise the Price of Provisions, which were already but too dear, having doubled since the Troops were quartered in that Country. We have the Satisfaction of seeing here a finer Vintage than has happened many Years, the new Wines of the Growth of Orleans, and the Adjacencies of this City, are sold here at five Sols a Pint, and without the Barrier of Paris they do not sell for more than two. Abundance of Officers arrive here daily from Bohemia, but last from Hungary, who have been released on their promising solemnly not to bear Arms against her Hungarian Majesty during the present War.

Extract of a Letter dated the 1st Inst. from Pullhelly.

There was a very unfortunate Affair happen'd this Day. The James and Elizabeth of Waterford, Sampson Tyler Master, from St. Kitt's, laden with Rum, bound to Waterford and from thence to Dublin, was drove here by the late Storm. She broke loose from her Moorings at the Gimblet, and was wreckt near Penychair, between the Gimblet and Cricketh, and the Ship, and major Part of her Cargo lost, excepting sixty Hogheads and eight Tierces saved, and those not full, the Casks very much damaged; eight Sails, one Mast, Bowsprit, several Yards, and Keelson, all brought to the Custom-house except the Keelson.

The Dorothy, Lister, from Petersburg, is bu'ged on her Anchors in the River.

The Marlborough, Ke'tie, from Yarmouth for Genoa, is lost near Calais.

We hear, that the Express which brought over the Ratification of the Defensive Treaty concluded between the Kings of Great Britain and Prussia, arrived here on Monday Night.

On Tuesday last died at his House at Rotherhith, aged Eighty-five, Capt. Saunders, many Years Commander of a Ship in the Italian Trade.

On Tuesday Night last died at his House in St. Margaret's Church-yard, Westminster, Mr. John Arkinson, Clerk to the Vestry and Workhouse of the said Church, a Place worth upwards of 150l. per annum; also Clerk to the Commissioners of the Land-tax for Westminster Division.

We hear he will be succeeded as Clerk of the Vestry and Workhouse by Mr. John Feary; and that Mr. George Stubbs Attorney at Law will be appointed Clerk to the Commissioners of the Land-tax in his stead.

Yesterday the Right Honourable the House of Peers waited on his Majesty at St. James's with their Address of Thanks for his most Gracious Speech from the Throne on Tuesday last.

To which his Majesty was pleas'd to return a most Gracious Answer.

And we hear the Hon. House of Commons will wait on his Majesty this Day with their Address.

The Right Hon. the House of Peers have adjourn'd to Tuesday next.

Yesterday being the Birth-day of Queen Elizabeth, as likewise the Day of her Release from the Tower and Accession to the Throne, the same was observ'd as usual, but particularly by the Gentlemen of Westminster-school of which she was Foundress.

Yesterday at the King's Bench Judgment was pronounc'd against Francis Reynolds, Ring-leader of the Gang of Coal-heavers, and four others, for beating and abusing the other Gangs. He was fin'd a Noble, and 12 Months Imprisonment, and the other three, three Months Imprisonment each.

Yesterday died at his House in Hatton-garden, Southerby, Esq; Ranger of Epping Forest. 'Tis very remarkable of this Gentleman, that he has not been known to have gone out of his House for almost these Ten Years past.

This Morning the Baker's Apprentice is to be executed in Holbourn opposite to the End of Fetter-lane, for the Murder of the Widow Dix, the Gallows, Scaffolds, &c. for that Purpose, having been erected last Night.

Dr. BATEMAN's Original and ONLY TRUE Wholesale and Retail WAREHOUSE at the Printing-Office, facing the South Door of Bow-Church, the Lower End of the Church-Yard, from Cheap-side, LONDON.
THE Daily Success which has constantly attended the Taking Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, in the several Distempers of Colds, Coughs, Pains in the Breast, Limbs, and Joints; has gain'd them so universal a Character, that few Families care to be without them in their Houses. Besides the Distempers above-mentioned, there is no one Medicine, since the Discovery of the Art of Physick, that will give a Speedier Relief and Ease in all Rheumatick Pains, Gout, Stone, Gravel, Cholick, Fluxes, &c. Innumerable Instances might be given of the Happy Effects thereof, but we choose to refer to a Book, call'd, A Short Treatise of the Virtues of Dr. BATEMAN's PECTORAL DROPS, given Gratis, at the Warehouse above-said; where all Shop-keepers, &c. in any City, Town, or Village, where these Drops are not already Sold, may be supplied, with good Allowance to sell again, by Directing or Sending to the PATENTEE,

BENJAMIN ORELL,
WM. and CLIVER DICEY;

The Surprising Encouragement, which by constant Success, these most Valuable Drops have, for upwards of Twenty Years, met with, not only in Great Britain and Ireland, but in all Parts of the West-Indies, and other Foreign Countries; has lately induced several mean and mercenary Pretenders to Counterfeit them; and by imitating our Seal, Bill of Directions, and Show-Boards, with our Method of Advertising, as near as they can or dare to do, without making them the same; thereby impose their dangerous Compositions upon the unwary and credulous Shop-keepers both in Town and Country, for the True and Genuine Sort.

The PATENTEE and Company therefore, in Gratitude for the universal good Reception they have so long met with, and for the Safety of those who for the future may be desirous of using the same, think themselves absolutely obliged to give this necessary Caution;

Which they earnestly request may be observed,

THAT the Bottle they Buy is not only Sealed with the Boar's Head, but has also these Words round it, BY THE KING'S PATENT, as in the Margin; and also that the Names of the PATENTEE, Benjamin Orell, William and Cliver Dicey, be in the Bill of Directions given with each Bottle; without which you may be assur'd it is a notorious Counterfeit, and may be of the most dangerous Consequence.

N. B. That these DROPS are also Sold Retail (as well as Wholesale) at the Warehouse aforesaid, at One Shilling the Bottle, containing three Doses.

To Persons of either Sex Afflicted with any Species of the Palsy, or other NERVOUS DECAYS.

NEVER were NERVOUS DISEASES, PALSIES, and PARALYTICK DISORDERS so frequent as of late they have been, nor have the usual Remedies been found adequate to those pertinacious Distempers: This occasioned a Physician, who employ'd his Thoughts much concerning them, to adapt a Medicine, a Sovereign Elixir, peculiar to, and effectual for, the Palsy, and all other nervous Complaints now reigning, which after he had experienced on vast Numbers of Persons of both Sexes, and always with surprising Success, even so as infallibly to cure by it the Palsy, and all Paralytick Effects and Nervous Disorders, he permitted it to be made publick for a general Good, that so those labouring under these miserable Ailments, might know where to meet with a safe and most certain Cure, which it accomplishes in so short a Time, and with such Ease and Pleasure (a few Drops of it being a Dose, highly agreeable to the Palate, and comforting to the Stomach and Bowels) as is almost incredible to relate.

But the taking one Bottle of it only, demonstrates its prodigious Efficacy to every one, and the Patients soon find all Numbness, Deadness, and Shaking, or Resolution of the Nerves, as well as all convulsive, cramp-like, or painful Contractions of them, vanish and return no more; and this, though these Diseases have been of many Years standing, and whether occasioned by long Illness, fast Living, hard Drinking, or any other Cause; for it performs all that can be wish'd for in Nervous Cases, creates an Appetite, expels Wind, rectifies the Digestion, occasions laudable Chyle, attenuates the Blood and Juices, causes a free and regular Circulation of 'em thro' the Capillary Vessels, revives and increases the Spirits, warms, comforts, strengthens, and replenishes the Brain and whole Nervous System, hence the Sinews, Tendons, Ligaments, and all the enfeebled Parts are invigorated, the Limbs restored to their pristine Steadiness and Strength, and the Palsy and all Paralytick Disorders and Nervous Decays suddenly cured by it, to the Admiration of the Patients themselves, and all about them.

This sovereign and incomparable Elixir is permitted to be sold only at Mrs. Holt's, at the Cross-Keys and Star below the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, London, at 3s. 6d. a Bottle, with printed Directions at large.

THE Elements of ALGEBRA,
 New and Easy Method; with their Use and Application, in the Solution of a great Variety of Arithmetical and Geometrical Questions, by General and Universal Rules. To which is prefix'd, An Introduction containing a succinct History of this Science.

By Mr. NATHANIEL HAMMOND, of the Bank.

Extra'd from the Account of this Book in the Works of the Learned.

'The World has long complained of the Want of a proper Introduction to Algebra. Some are so very concise, that they were contrived not to teach but introduce a Teacher; others again are larger, but wrote with so little Collection, that the Understandings of such as are altogether unacquainted with the Science, that they are of very little Use to those who are most inclined to make use of them. When it comes to pass, that few find it practicable to make Progress in Algebra without a Master, who certainly the more it is far from surpassing a clear Head, and a reasonable Understanding.

'The Design of this Treatise, which is of a reasonable Bulk, and which contains nothing which is not solid, and to the Purpose, is to assist such as are engaged in teaching Algebra with a regular Method, and a large Stock of Examples, that their Scholars may find Employment in their Absence; and to enable such as live in Country-Places, and who frequently want all other Tutors, except Books, to acquire such a Skill in this Science, as may enable them to teach better Parts, and in rendering a natural Method of explaining after Truth habitual.

'The Treatise begins with a copious Explication of the Fundamental Principles of the Art, and of the Signs and Method of Notation used therein. The Author then proceeds to the several Rules, explaining them carefully and copiously in all their various Cases; so that with a moderate Attention it is simply impossible for a Person, who desires to be Master of Algebra, to miss of his End.

'We never find this Writer advancing any thing out of the proper Place, or burthening the Mind of his Scholar with Rules, before they become necessary: He professes to have imitated the judicious Euclid in this Respect; and he has done it with equal Art and Felicity. By this means he has delivered the young Student in Algebra from that which is usually the most fatiguing Part of the Science, viz. the Doctrine of Surds, in the Manner in which it is usually taught. By the same Means he leads his Reader directly to Equations; and, by shewing him the Profit he will reap from this Science, encourages him to overcome all its Difficulties. But having thus laid a strong and rational Foundation, he moves more slowly through the rest of his Work, that whoever follows him, may be obliged to become Master of every Branch of the Art, so as to be a complete Algebraist, before he quits his Book, and not a Smatterer.

'Quadratic Equations, and the Art of managing Convergging Series, the admirable Invention of the incomparable Newton, are here so clearly explained, and their several Cases so plainly set down, and so thoroughly explicated, that it may be truly said, there are no where else such Instructions to be met with. At the Close of the Book, we find abundance of Observations, necessary for enlightening such Minds as are willing to proceed still farther in analytic Discoveries; so that considering the Compass of this Work, and that it is very moderate, it is as complete as possibly can be expected: And he who is thoroughly versed in it, will find no great Difficulties, when he proceeds to sublimer Studies. The Language is plain and natural, the Book is more copious than any other in Examples, and the Illustrations of them are so full and clear, that it is impossible to mistake their Meaning.
